P-EBT Eligibility

Question	Answer
What is School Aged P-EBT for?	The P-EBT program was created in Spring of 2020 to supplement the free or reduced-priced meals your child would get if their school were not closed due to the COVID-19 pandemic. More P-EBT funds are being issued for the 2021-2022 school year and will be available to cover the summer months.
Why am I getting School Aged P-EBT?	The P-EBT benefit was enacted with the Families First Coronavirus Response Act. Your child can get School Aged P-EBT during the school year months of August through May, if they qualify for free or reduced-price school meals through the National School Lunch Program and missed school for 5 consecutive days due to COVID-19.
How can I get this benefit?	Your child can get School Aged P-EBT if they qualify for free or reduced-price school meals through the National School Lunch Program and missed school for 5 consecutive days due to COVID-19. This includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Missing school if the student test positive for COVID and or in close contact with a student who test positive and were quarantined.• The student also qualifies if the student's district/school was shut down due to positive COVID cases.

School Aged P-EBT Summer Issuance

Question	Answer
How much is School Aged Summer P-EBT	School Aged P-EBT Summer Issuance Eligible students will receive $391 to cover the summer months of June and July 2022.

going to be for June and July 2022?
How do I know if my child is eligible for School Aged Summer P-EBT?	In order for the child to be eligible they must have attended school as of the last date of the school year for 2021-2022 and approved for Free or Reduced Priced meals for Breakfast/Lunch through the National School Lunch Program (NSLP). Or, the child may have attended a school that received Free Meals through Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). For households that became newly eligible during the summer, applications for Free or Reduced Priced Meals must have been submitted to the school by June 30, 2022; an application is NOT needed if the child received free or reduced price NSLP meals at the end of the school year. Summer Issuance does not look at COVID related absences to determine eligibility. COVID related absences were only looked at for school year issuance. Student information was provided for summer eligibility by the individual student's school and submitted through Public Education Department (PED) to Human Services Department (HSD).
How can I get this benefit?	Your child can get School Aged P-EBT if they qualify for free or reduced-price school meals through the National School Lunch Program and missed school for 5 consecutive days due to COVID-19. The School Aged P-EBT card is under my child's name. Can I speak with Customer Service if I'm having issues with my card?	Yes. Because you are the child's guardian, your child's school, FIS and P-EBT Customer Service staff will work with you. They will try to address and alleviate any issues you may be having.

Using EBT Cards

Question	Answer
Where can I use P-EBT?	Use it the same as SNAP benefits. This benefit is used to purchase SNAP-eligible foods. These are sold at hundreds of grocers across the country. They are at convenience stores. They are at farmer's markets. They are at other businesses that take SNAP. You can also use your card where you see the Quest logo. You can search for retailers that take SNAP. Find them near you. Go to: https://usdafns.maps.arcgis.com/apps/webappviewer/index.html?id=e1f3028b217344d78b324193b10375e4
How are P-EBT cards issued? How are P-EBT benefits issued?	If you have a P-EBT card, the funds will go on the card. That means the card you got before. A new P-EBT card is issued for every distinct combination of address and guardian name. Kids in different families with the same guardian name will get benefits on a single card. This is because the address is the same. In case your child continues to qualify for school aged P-EBT, keep your child's P-EBT card. Do not destroy.
What if I have more than one child? Will I get more than one P-EBT card?	Most households will get one card. It will be issued in the eldest child's name. It will include P-EBT benefits for all eligible children within the household. But this depends on the address. It also depends on guardian information on file with your child's school. You might get more than one card. If you have questions about this, call 1-833-415-0569.
Why did I not get a card for my child? I know they are eligible.	Please call P-EBT Customer Service. They can check your child's information. Call 1-833-415-0569. Here are some possible reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Benefits may have been paid to the eldest sibling's card. • The card may have been mailed to another listed guardian's

	address. That address would be from the school. If so, please work with that party to get your child’s benefits. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Benefits may have gone to a child outside of your household. This is if the school had your child listed as living at that address. That address had other eligible kids. If this is the case, please work with that party to get your child’s benefits. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ We cannot separate a benefit that has already been paid out. ○ Benefits cannot be paid retroactively. For School Aged P-EBT, benefit is paid based on information the school has for the child. If that has changed, then the info needs to be updated with the school.

Benefit Expungement

Question	Answer
Does the P-EBT card expire?	P-EBT benefits will be expunged after no activity within 274 days of the initial date of benefit activity. Once expunged, the child loses all rights to expunged benefits. This is automatic. Do not throw away your card. If your child is eligible for P-EBT, the benefits will go on that card.
If I do not use the P-EBT card, do I send it back to HSD?	The P-EBT benefit will stay on the card for 274 days. You do not have to use it all at once. If you do not use it, the benefit will be recouped for lack of use after 274 days. This is automatic.
I got a P-EBT card, but I do not need it. Can I give it to a family who does?	The P-EBT card is a benefit for the family. Your child's benefits can be used for all other members in your household. The card and benefits cannot be transferred to another family or household. The P-EBT benefit will stay on the card for 274 days. If you do not use the benefit, it will be recouped for lack of use. This is automatic.

Miscellaneous

Question	Answer
My child is not a citizen but gets free or reduced-price meals. Can they get School Aged P-EBT?	As long as a child would get free or reduced-price school meals through NSLP and missed 5 or more consecutive days of school due to COVID-19, they can get School Aged P-EBT. Their immigration status does not matter. School Aged P-EBT does not fall under Public Charge.
Will this impact me becoming a citizen?	P-EBT does not fall under Public Charge.
How are school absences due to COVID reported for school aged students?	Each District/School keeps track of each of these absences to report this data to the PED for P-EBT eligibility for the time the student did not have access to school breakfast or lunch during April 2021 ongoing. This data must have been reported by the school in order for the school aged child to be eligible.
